

Transfer of Copyright Agreement

Must be signed and returned to SME through the Editors for the manuscript to be considered for publication.

The transfer of copyright from author to publisher must be clearly stated in writing to enable the publisher to assure maximum dissemination of the author's work. Therefore, the following agreement, stated and signed by the author, is required with each manuscript submission. (The paper must be signed by the employer if it is a "work made for hire" result.)

Paper title: _____

Author(s): _____

The above paper was presented to an SME conference and is herewith submitted for publication in an upcoming issue of the SME publication. The Copyright for the above paper was not and will not be given to anyone; the paper was not published before; it is not under consideration for publication in any other publication. The paper contains no matter that is scandalous, obscene, libelous, or in any way contrary to law. If the paper is accepted for publication, I, as the corresponding author, hereby agree to transfer to SME all rights under existing copyright laws except for the following, which the author(s) specifically retain(s):

1. The right to make further copies of all or part of the published article for my use in classroom teaching;
2. The right to reuse all or part of this material in a compilation of my own works or in a textbook that I author;
3. The right to make copies of the published work for internal distribution within the institution that employs me.

I agree that copies made under these circumstances will continue to bear the copyright notice related to the original published work. I agree to inform my co-authors, if any, of the above terms.

I certify that I have obtained written permission for the use of text, tables, and/or illustrations from any copyrighted sources(s), and I agree to supply such written permission(s) to SME upon request.
